The Great Spirit created Man and Woman in his own image. In doing so, both were created as equals. Both depending on each other in order to survive. Great respect was shown for each other; in doing so, happiness and contentment was achieved then, as it should be now.

The connecting of the Hair makes them one person; for happiness or contentment cannot be achieved without each other.

The Canyons are represented by the purples in the middle ground, where the people were created. These canyons are Sacred, and should be so treated at all times.

The Reservation is pictured to represent the land that is ours, treat it well.

The Reservation is our heritage and the heritage of our children yet unborn. Be good to our land and it will continue to be good to us.

The Sun is the symbol of life, without it nothing is possible - plants don't grow, there will be no life - nothing. The Sun also represents the dawn of the Hualapai people. Through hard work, determination and education, everything is possible and we are assured bigger and brighter days ahead.

The Tracks in the middle represent the coyote and other animals which were here before us.

The Green around the symbol are pine trees, representing our name Hualapai - PEOPLE OF THE TALL PINES.

TO: Hualapai Tribal Members

This is to inform the Hualapai Tribal Members of the outcome of the Hualapai Tribal Chairman's hearing. At the Special Council meeting on Monday, April 19, 2021, the Hualapai Tribal Council found Chairman Clarke in violation of the Hualapai Tribal Council Code of Ethics and Standards Conduct, Section 50 Improper Conduct. Chairman Clarke was placed on a 30-day (work days) suspension immediately.

I would like to say to the community that we continue to move forward, we are still dealing with many issues within the tribal government and community. Please be mindful COVID is still active, so I encourage tribal members/community members to continue to protect yourself by "MASK UP", "WASH/SANITIZE YOUR HANDS" and "SOCIAL DISTANCE".

Thank you.

Open Pit Mine Threatens Water Rights and Resolution 24-2021

Open Pit Mine Threatens Hualapai Water Rights

By Martina Dawley

Map of Cholla Canyon Ranch with Australian Lithium Mine (iseekplant.com) insert.

On April 22, 2021, the Hualapai Tribal Council passed Resolution 24-2021, the Hualapai Tribe Objection to the Sandy Valley Lithium Project. The Sandy Valley Lithium Project is a lithium-mining claim that surrounds more than half of Cholla Canyon Ranch, located near Wikieup, Arizona. The Hualapai own Cholla Canyon Ranch, which is a 360-acre plot of land that includes the sacred spring Ha'Kamwe'.

In 2018 and 2019, Australian mining company, Hawkstone Mining, began drilling for lithium sample cores just east of Cholla Canyon Ranch. According to Peter Bungart, HDCR Director, they completed their drilling in two phases on less than five acres for each phase to comply with the 1872 Mining Law and avoid the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requirements. Ivan Bender, Cholla Ranch Caretaker, witnessed these two phases and reported it to the Tribe.

NEPA regulations require consultation with Native American tribes to "preserve important historic, cultural and natural aspects of our national heritage." However, the Mining Act, which is a federal law, allows United States citizens and firms to explore for minerals and establish rights to federal land without authorization from any government agency. This Law needs to change.

Newly appointed to the White House Environmental Justice Council, Carletta Tilousi, Havasupai Councilwomanan, stated that the priority for change is the 1872 Mining Law. She told NAU Public Media in an interview, "the 1872 Mining Law that directly affects Indigenous communities that are being faced with international mining companies to come into our backyards and stake uranium claims, or any type of mining claims, that are contaminating our sacred sites and sacred places and even our waters. We're not a large group of people. We're also small groups of tribes that are near extinction. And all we ask is our sacred lands and our waters and our way of worship be protected. And I'd really like to see that be addressed in the White House and also tackle the 1872 Mining Law that will prevent these types of mining companies to come and contaminate our backyards, and leave with no responsibility of cleanup."

Hualapai hold the same concerns and have our own saying,

Water and the Hualapai

"Water is ha'nyi gach ja (grandfather water) to the Hualapai. Prayers are said when one partakes of the life-giving liquid. The springs, ha'pak, of the Hualapai lands are considered holy water."

"The Holy Water is bathed in for healing of the body and soul. Babies are taken to the sacred spring near their place of birth and washed. Doing this makes the child a part of the spring and the child can return to the spring for blessing and guidance. That child is related to the water. The Hualapais live through the water and the water lives through the Hualapai." (Gamyu Issue #11, May 2019)

Beginning in 2020 and released on April 12, 2021, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) prepared an Environmental Assessment (EA) in response to a proposal by Hawkstone Mining to conduct more drilling surrounding Cholla Ranch to the north, east, and south. Communication between the BLM and Tribe was not consistent during that time and on April 12 a draft EA was released to the public. The Tribe was notified of the EA for the Project on the same day, with a 30-day response period requested by the BLM.

On April 8, 2021, Hawkstone Mining presented their project to Mohave County, City of Kingman, and the Hualapai Tribe. Howah. The Tribe did not have representation for that meeting.

The presentation included a 2021-2022 Development Plan and a Hualapai Tribe and Environmental/ Stakeholder Engagement. They call it The Big Sandy Lithium Project and claim that there are no impacts to cultural and natural resources, especially the water. Hawkstone's plan is to complete drilling and start up their Pilot plan in 2021, then by 2023 to 2024 construct a full commercial plant. By 2025, they plan to run a full commercial plant operation to last for over 45 years, subject to further NEPA review.

Should the EA receive a Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) and additional exploration be approved and completed, the mining company will then need to request a full Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to pursue full-scale open pit mining that must be written and a record of decision approved by the BLM beforehand.

Hawkstone clearly expects to find a profitable deposit of lithium in the area, and proposes an open-pit lithium mine that will include the following:

- A buried slurry pipeline for ore transport.
- Dry-stacked tailings.
- Ore, products and waste material.
- Lithium product chemical plant.
- Sulfuric acid plant.
- Roads on the landscape.
- Water usage

Water, lots of water, will go to this project. Many environmentalist know that,

The biggest environmental danger posed by lithium mining is the amount of water the process uses up: an estimated 500,000 gallons of water per ton of lithium extracted. This can endanger the communities where the lithium is being mined because it can cause droughts or famine if operations are not kept in check. (<https://www.greenmatters.com/p/fracking-vs-lithium-mining>)

How do we use lithium?

We use lithium every day when we are on our cell phones, laptops, and tablets. Electric cars, too. Lithium-ion batteries are a big part of many modern pieces of technology.

Therefore, it is up to us to minimize the use of our devices and voice our objection to the mine. In the meantime, please send a letter stating how important Cholla Ranch is to our community and culture. We need to make a stand. Send all comments and letters to Attn: Martina Dawley, HDCR, P.O. Box 310, Peach Springs, AZ or drop by the Cultural Center and let's talk. HUALAPAI TRIBAL COUNCIL
RESOLUTION NO. 24-2021
OF THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE
HUALAPAI TRIBE OF THE HUALAPAI INDIAN RESERVATION

(Hualapai Tribe Objection to the Sandy Valley Lithium Project)

WHEREAS, the Hualapai Indian Tribe is a federally recognized Indian Tribe located on the Hualapai Indian Reservation in northwestern Arizona with authority vested in the Hualapai Tribal Council by the Constitution approved March 31, 1991; and

WHEREAS, the Hualapai Tribe acknowledges and holds sacred a vast cultural landscape in northwestern Arizona that encompasses the area surrounding Wikieup, Arizona, including ancestral archaeological sites and other traditional cultural places, as well as plant, wildlife, and water resources; and

WHEREAS, the Hualapai Tribe owns 360 acres of land encompassing Cholla Canyon Ranch, within which Ha’Kamwe’ (Cofer Hot Springs) is located; and

WHEREAS, Cofer Hot Springs was determined by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) to be a Traditional Cultural Property eligible for the National Register of Historic Places as a result of an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) and Supplemental Analysis for the Big Sandy Energy Project (cancelled) in 2001-2002; and

WHEREAS, an Australian mining company, Hawkstone Mining Limited, dba Big Sandy, Inc., has conducted exploratory drilling for lithium clays on BLM land immediately adjacent to Hualapai land (Cholla Canyon Ranch) in 2018-2019, permitted by the BLM; and

WHEREAS, Hawkstone has applied for additional, more expansive, exploration (referred to as the Sandy Valley Lithium Project) on mining claims located on BLM land immediately adjacent Hualapai land, which would create surface and subsurface disturbances resulting from a proposed 145 drill pads, a bulk sample site, heavy equipment access roads to drill pads totaling approximately 12.5 miles, potential development of an existing inactive water well, and other associated facilities; and

WHEREAS, the current proposed action requires NEPA analysis and review, for which a draft Environmental Assessment (EA) has been prepared and was released on April 12, 2021, with comments requested by May 11, 2021; and

WHEREAS, a number of serious deficiencies exist, including disregard for several sensitive resource categories that were analyzed insufficiently or not all, including Cultural Resources, Environmental Justice, Native American Religious Concerns/ Traditional Values, Visual Resources, Water Resources, and Water Quality; and

WHEREAS, the Hualapai Tribe requested Cooperating Agency status in response to a request for tribal consultation by the BLM regarding the preparation of the EA for the proposed action, including an initial request from the Hualapai Tribe submitted July 2, 2020, and an additional follow up request on November 2, 2020 when we did not receive a response to our earlier submittal. Our request for Cooperating Agency status was based on our ability to provide expertise and specialized knowledge that could have contributed to the draft EA, but was denied by the BLM in a letter dated November 10, 2020; and

WHEREAS, Ha'Kamwe' (Cofer Hot Springs) and the surrounding cultural landscape in which it is located are considered ancestral to the Hualapai people and continue to be revered as patrimony and integral to the identity of the Hualapai people; and

WHEREAS, should any further destruction or disturbance be permitted by the BLM, this cultural landscape and the fragile desert resources within it will be irreparably harmed; and

WHEREAS, should any further destruction or disturbance be approved, including the proposed action or future mining activity as described in the April 22, 2021, presentation made by Hawkstone Mining, Ltd. to tribal council, the Tribe's ability to operate Cholla Canyon Ranch for beneficial purposes, including ceremonial purposes, or for economic pursuits such as horticulture for tribal use or recreation such as secular activities will be irreparably harmed; and

WHEREAS, the permitting of extractive mining activities adjacent to Hualapai land (Cholla Canyon Ranch), including exploration that would lead to full-scale open-pit mining, would constitute a serious abrogation of Federal Trust obligations by the BLM, as well as an affront to tribal sovereignty.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Hualapai Tribal Council strongly objects to any further permitting of surface or subsurface disturbances within the Sandy Valley Lithium mining claim area, which will result in devastating impacts to significant cultural and spiritual resources; will threaten long term tribal water rights and quality; will cause irreparable harm to the Tribe's ability to continue cultural activities and to pursue economic development of Cholla Canyon Ranch, and will result in long term ecological destruction of a fragile desert environment, including plant and animal species with cultural significance. Further, should an open pit mine ever be permitted, it would create enormous public health issues caused by pollution, dust, noise, and overall safety concerns caused by having such a mine immediately adjacent to Hualapai land, as well as severe visual impacts.

C E R T I F I C A T I O N

I, the undersigned as Vice-Chairman of the Hualapai Tribal Council, hereby certify that the Hualapai Tribal Council of the Hualapai Tribe is composed of nine (9) members of whom eight (8) constituting a quorum were present at a Special Council Meeting held this 22nd day of April, 2021; and that the foregoing resolution was duly adopted by a vote of (7) approve, (0) opposed, (2) excused; pursuant to authority of Article V, Section (a) of the Constitution of the Hualapai Tribe approved March 13, 1991.

The Hualapai Green Arrow Gardening Project

(Sal Gav de G'vasu:wa gwe' hwa:l jo)

Series #5, April 23, 2021

Spring is always a wonderful time of the year. It's the time to put seeds in starter pots, and prepare your garden for the upcoming season. When we talk about seed quality we tend to believe that they are all the same. It does take a little understanding in order to find the right plant that would best suit your garden's success. Just like soil, seeds have a range of qualities that can be explained, in order to know what works for every gardener.

Seeds come as open pollinated varieties, which are considered "breed true." When the plants of an open pollinated variety self-pollinated by another representation of the same variety, and so the resulting seed will produce plants identically to the parent plants. Open pollinated varieties are also often referred to as standard varieties or, when seeds have been saved across generations or across several decades they are referred to as "Heirloom" varieties.

Heirloom varieties are usually open pollinated, but all open pollinated are not necessarily heirlooms. Heirloom seeds are often saved by home gardeners and farmers. They tend to be the crops that do well in a particular soil, and have resistances to variant in plant viruses, blights and other diseases, and visa-versa, open pollinated varieties are produced through natural pollination without breeding controls. They may be produced to have resistances for all soils conditions, and are tolerant in many locations. These would be the seeds that you would want in order to have healthy plants and to be able to save their seeds.

Hybrid seeds also have to be labeled on the packets (F1), modern hybrids are produced by cross-pollinating two distinct, inbred parents. Difficult to save their seeds, not impossible, but will not reproduce identically to the parent plant. Hybrids can be one of the best seeds for the one-time crop. They are resistant to plant disease. They have qualities that produce healthy plants and can be used in areas of the country that may not be indigenous to that location. So, yes, a hybrid seed may be a good choice. Usually when you purchase from a general nursery like Walmart, Home Depot, Lowes, etc. you will more than likely pick-up a hybrid.

Organic seeds set standards that eliminate or reduce chemical inputs. Organic is regulated by the USDA National Organic program and have to be approved as to their authentic organic standards. Usually an organic grower will advertise for sales on a specific site, and will not be readily available in commercial sales.

There are also seeds that are grown for commercial reason. Treated seeds that are coated with a fungicide or pesticide. Not allowed in organic gardens. These seeds can usually be identified by their fluorescent colors such as pink or blue. GMO (Genetically Modified Organism) seeds come in large plots for commercial use, such as a farmer that is growing in large parcels such as corn, wheat, etc. GMO's can be a lengthy conversation and how our food system has become bombarded with Modifiers in our seeds. Which is why, it's good to know something about seed varieties and how to select seeds when you are making choices.

Another form of seed selection is 'wild crafted' in which, this method is collected from wild plants growing in natural environments. This form of collecting would be plants that produce edible fruits or veggies that are desirable, and would be easily managed if located nearby, either in a garden or a landscape that is created just for the plant to grow successfully. One of my Auntie's would grow wild berry plants, in which she 'wild crafted' the seeds so as to propagate them near her home. I know this works, but it doesn't satisfy all the other plants that you would want to yield in your garden.

It was a simple act of our ancestors that began identifying and domesticating food plants thousands of years ago. Seed selecting was seeing the quality and the productivity of a particular crop, and then replanting the seeds. It was important to set aside seeds, as well as maintaining the best crop for harvest, the two go hand and hand. The United States is a melting pot of immigrants from around the World. We are blessed with access to vegetable varieties from every corner of the world invariably brought along with immigrating families. Their seed treasures were sown into dresses, smuggled in linings of suitcases, seeds that were brought here and planted successfully and were a simple reminder of their own country.

The Hualapai Cultural Community Garden is up and ready for community members to start working in the garden and putting in a crop for your use. Garden work days are every Monday. If you wish to be part of this year's garden season, join us as we start the planting to harvest. You can get in touch with us at: 769-2234. Join us at the Green Arrow Garden at the Hualapai Cultural Center.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As we prepare to enter into a full in-person hybrid schedule beginning Monday, April 26th, I wanted to take a moment to thank you for your goodness, patience, and resiliency during the past 13 months. This has been as challenging of a time in education that I can remember. COVID-19 has pushed us to rethink what learning means and how we can make it work for our students. It has also pushed us as a community to think of who we are and how we can better care for each other. Over the next four weeks it will feel like the beginning of a new school year, however we will also be closing out the current 2020-2021 school year. The most important thing during these next four weeks is not that of grades and attendance, (those are important 😊) rather it is most important how we continue to treat each other and accept each other and come together as a school and community. I am confident that with the team we have, the addition of the new members that we are adding to the PSUSD team, and the strength and courage of the Hualapai Tribe and Peach Springs Community that these four weeks will be the very BEST! Most importantly, all of us working together will set us up for success for the 2021-2022 school year!

I would like to take a moment to introduce you to new members at PSUSD:

Byron Bolen- Principal Music Mountain Jr/Sr High School and Music Mountain Academy.

John Riddle Principal- Peach Springs Elementary School.

Kayla Crowe – Social Emotional Learning.

Jessica Smith- Paraprofessional.

Demetria Sullivan – Paraprofessional.

Val Vaughn – Paraprofessional.

Renita Glover – Business Services/Accounts Payable.

Hyton Samson - Maintenance

Thank you for your support and belief in our school. Together we can create the best learning for our students! As always, for any questions or concerns, please call the school office at 928-769-2202, extension 100. Updates and current information can be found on our school website PSUSD8.org as well as on Facebook under Peach Springs Elementary School.

Regards,

William Santiago

April 22, 2021

Dear Valentine Families:

This Monday's Executive Order 2021-10 from Governor Ducey rescinded the requirement for face coverings in school buildings, on school buses, and at school-sponsored events, returning the decision-making on the matter to the local school boards.

Because our school has had no in-school transmissions and will continue with our temperature checks and other mitigation strategies, the Valentine Elementary School Board voted today to rescind its policy requiring the wearing of face coverings. Our existing procedures for temperature checks, handwashing, disinfecting, and social distancing to the greatest extent possible will continue.

Students and staff will continue to have the option to wear face coverings if they choose. The school will also maintain a supply of face coverings available for student and staff use if needed.

I encourage you to have conversations with your student about your family decision regarding face coverings. The school staff will honor whatever decision you choose to make. We would obviously expect students to do the same and be respectful of others. Ridiculing or belittling other students for their choices will not be tolerated and will incur consequences for the inappropriate behavior.

As we will be guests of Kingman High School for the Small Schools Track Meet on May 6, I need to make you aware that Kingman Unified School District voted on Tuesday evening to also make face coverings optional; however, the remainder of the mitigation strategies will continue to be in place the stadium seating will be sectioned off by school, and families are expected to maintain an acceptable distance from others while in the stands.

Our promotion ceremony is scheduled for Wednesday, May 26th at 6pm in our gymnasium. Although face coverings will not be required, we will continue forward with the planned procedure of limited seating to maintain appropriate distances and families sitting together in small groups.

If you have any questions about this (hopefully last) change in a year where flexibility has been one of the most important life skills ever, do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Educationally,

Cliff Angle
Superintendent

TRACK MEET

The Small Schools Track Meet is scheduled for Thursday, May 6, 2021, at Kingman High School, 4182 N. Bank St., Kingman, AZ.. Our campus will be closed on that day; however, since this is a whole-school event on a school day, attendance is expected. Students not participating due to injury or illness are still expected to attend the track meet to support their fellow students and will be assigned other responsibilities to assist at the event.

Spectators are limited to the stadium section designated for our school. They may park in the main campus parking lot near the baseball fields. There will be no vehicles allowed near the track area.

Bring shade (that you can secure in the stands), sunscreen, water, and your best cheering voices. We plan to break for lunch at 1pm. Students may not leave the meet for lunch. Once the meet has concluded, families may sign their students out from the meet as they would sign them out from school. Ms. Blount will have the sign-out book by the concession stand. All other students will be transported back to their bus stops.

Permission slips included with this newsletter must be returned no later than Monday, May 3.

STATE TESTING

Thanks to everyone's efforts, our students have completed all of their state tests ahead of schedule! We appreciate families having their students at school the past two weeks. Next up are our final benchmark posttests during the week of May 10th.

UPCOMING EVENTS

05/06 – Small Schools Track Meet @ Kingman High School
 05/11 – School Board Meeting – 4:30 pm
 05/26 – GRADUATION/PROMOTION – Early Release Noon
 05/27 – Field Day – Early Release 1:45 (Now at the School)

HOW CAN I HELP MY STUDENT?

- Encourage them to finish strong – It is common for students to start “putting on the brakes” in April and May. Even though there are only 18 days of school after today, there is still plenty to get accomplished.
- Plan to read every day – Start talking to your students about a plan to read every day over the summer. Reading every day is a great way to help students stay involved with learning when school is not in session.
- Think about next year's Mohave County Fair – September 9-12, 2021. Entries will be due just a couple of weeks into the school year. Start planning with your students now for the entries they would like to submit.

2021-2022 ENROLLMENT APPLICATIONS

Applications for the 2021-2022 school year are now available on the school's website. A hard copy is being sent home with this newsletter. They are also available in the box by the front gate. All students planning to attend next school year must submit a new application each year. Completed applications with all current documentation may be turned in to the dropbox at the school, emailed to offcmgr.valentine@gmail.com, or faxed to 928-769-2389. Attendance and behavior will be taken into consideration for determining acceptance for next year.

PROMOTION 2021

To avoid conflicts with high school graduation ceremonies, our Promotion Ceremony for Kindergarten and 8th grade students will be held on Wednesday, May 26, beginning at 6pm in the gymnasium. To promote social distancing, attendance is limited to family of the graduates, who must remain in their designated area. Refreshments will be served after the ceremony.

New Week Blessing

I pray you always keep hope in your heart.
 Love what you have. Need what you want.
 Accept what you receive.
 Give what you can. Let go of what's gone.
 Be grateful for what you have.
 Focus on what's in front of you.
 Look forward to what GOD give you next!
 Miracles happen EVERYDAY! Amen!

Life

Life is good when you are happy!
 But life is better when other people are happy because of you.
 People may not reward you or thank you for what you do, but when God is your reason for loving and giving. You will receive a greater blessing in return!
 Amen
Have a good day!

Real Love is Patient

Submitted by: Zeke Smith

Dear Next Generation:

Hatred, lust, love, true love, real love and eternal love is real. For me, Zeke Smith as a human being and what emotions I live by, is viewed by the sixth sense, so I am created with you. You have been witnessing a cheap dollar store version of love in our current culture- from TV shows to music to popular magazines. What is portrayed looks like the most fantastic love, but in the end it's only a fantasy, fake - it isn't real. The quality of our lives is based upon the quality of our relationships. There are ways to have quality, romantic, loving relations with people but it isn't what they are selling in the dollar store. Those are dollar store relations that are cheap, come apart at the seams, and they don't last very long. Well, love is patient. It takes time. A man or woman gardener plants a seed, waters the soil, pulls the weeds, and waits for the fruit to grow and ripen. If he or she picks the fruit before it is ready, it's hard and sour and not good for eating. Patience. When you fall in love with someone and decide to move in together, you are essentially picking the fruit before it's ready to come off the vine. You are acting like a husband and a wife, sharing bills, moments, chores, meals and a bed, but that's just it. You are acting like something you are not, until you say "I do" in the public arena, you are not in authentic husband or wife, you are pretending. I have seen some pretty good ceramic fruit in my day. It's pretty to look at but you can't eat fake fruit, no matter how attractive it looks, bringing back real love and romance requires patience and integrity. You will be much happier in your relationships if you don't play a role, you haven't signed on for. Being the husband who sacrifices and put his life on the line to protect his wife and being a woman who desires to love and care for her husband in tender moments are the scenes of the romantic movies we watch, we yearn to live like that. For quite a while now, the culture has exposed "free love". Love anyone, anywhere, anytime – whatever makes you feel good,. Sex is what they are selling and who doesn't love free stuff? Even free love! Well, like every good sales pitch, the culture has left out some pretty valuable information about the free love it's peddling. Love is free but the sex cost. It will cost you physically and emotionally. The quality of your life deteriorates as your body and your mind write the checks for this so-called free love. I could prove it to you by listing statistics but that don't change people's minds. Thinking changes minds.

If you want a quality, romantic, loving relationship it will cost you. True real love is free. Just think of your best love relationships you have done or witnessed. The happiest couples are real husbands and wives, they aren't playing around in the sandbox. They are patient with one another, they sacrifice their own needs to honor the other. The happiest couples have created a beautiful garden filled with delicious fruit that has grown over time. It certainly wasn't free. They paid a great price, but what they have is of the highest quality. You won't find this kind of love in the dollar store. A man helps a woman out of kindness, a woman does for a man she honors.

Best regards,
 Zeke Smith
